SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF MARTYRS

Auriesville, New York

The Holy Ground of the North American Martyrs and Birthplace of St. Kateri Tekakwitha

St. Kateri Speaks to People from All Walks of Life

Some readers will remember when the remarkable "tramp art" sculpture honoring St. Kateri was donated to the Shrine in 1993 by artist Michael Lavery (R). He donated a second piece to the Saints of Auriesville Museum in 2017: a Kateri back pack fashioned as tramp art. He carried to 1990 World Youth Day where he received a hug from Pope St. John Paul II. Mr. Lavery recently came on pilgrimage from Catskill, NY, with his family to revisit his creations.

A young Mohawk woman (L) living in New Jersey remarked that the information displayed in the Saints of Auriesville Museum about the Iroquois is the most complete she has ever seen. She said even the Native American exhibit at the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D.C. has copious amounts of information and exhibits on most indigenous tribes but meager amounts on Woodland Indians of the Northeast. "I learned more about the Iroquois in this museum than I did there!" She expressed disappointment that, due to miscommunication at her birth, she is not named for St. Kateri.

Of the Sisters of St. Joseph the Worker (R) who visited from Harrisburg, PA, one had a special connection to St. Kateri in that she is blind. She was pleased to find many museum artifacts that are "touchable." In learning the various translations of Tekakwitha, they all jumped when they heard: she who puts things in order. "Sister does exactly that!" They were very moved to able to venerate the relics of St. Kateri and the North American Martyrs in the Coliseum.

St. Kateri Tekakwitha, Pray for Us!

Please join us for our Novena of Masses leading to her Feast Day on July 14. See side bar at left for details. And visit the new art work at her altar in the Coliseum.

Auriesville Institute is a new lecture series offered to deepen our knowledge and love of the Faith. Local and visiting experts will present one-hour lectures/discussions on topics such as the Saints, the Mass, Church doctrine, apologetics, and family and life issues. On Saturday July 13, the first in the series is offered by Jim Havens of Rochester, NY, Director of Pro-Life at The Station of the Cross Catholic Radio Network and founder of Love Will End Abortion (www.lovetillendabortion.com) . He will share his expertise and experiences as a pro-life activist and sidewalk counselor outside abortion clinics. 12pm-1pm in the Visitor Center.

The Annual 1885 Pilgrimage will take place on Saturday August 3. 9:30 a.m. Traditional Latin Mass in the 1885 Chapel; bring a lawn chair or blanket for seating outside chapel; Celebrant: Father Jeffery L'Arche; 10:15 Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Benediction, Confessions; 11:15 Daniel Clough will then give a presentation. 12:00 BYO lunch to the Visitor Center; 1:00 meet at Saints of Auriesville Museum for tour. Catholic Professionals

Conference and Mini Retreat covered the difficult topic of abuse with presentations by survivors and professionals. Father Robert McTeigue, S.J.'s lecture (R) on the Sacredness of the Human Person underscored the dignity of the body and soul of each individual, how we treat ourselves, and how we are treated by others. Mass was celebrated in the Coliseum by Bishop Edward Scharfenberger, Fr McTeigue, concelebrant, followed by Corpus Christi Procession (L), Exposition, and rededication of Our Lady of Martyrs Grotto.

Father Peter Murray, S.J. (on Right in photo) Mini Retreat on "Caring for Creation" was well received and also served to reunite the former Shrine director with old friends. Father Francis O'Connor (on left in photo) of Our Lady of the Americas Mission Church in Albany concelebrated the Mass and delivered the homily.
