Prolifers celebrate at the U.S. Supreme Court decision to over turn the nefarious and unconstitutional Roe v Wade that ensured legal abortion in all 50 states since 1973. The fight for the unborn is not over. Abortion laws revert to the states, and NY has doubled down on making it available. Join us at the Monument to the Unborn at 10am on Sept 10, followed by 11am Mass in Coliseum.

In The Coliseum

Fr John Audino, FSSP, celebrated his first anniversary of ordination with the Usus Antiquior in the Coliseum. 250 people attended.

Originally from the Albany Diocese, he described the Shrine as “the holiest ground in America” and that his vocation was “inspired” here.

Fr Brian Maxwell of the Diocese of Norwich, CT, was main celebrant for St Kateri Feast Day Mass with Fr Giorgio as concelebrant. A longtime friend of the Shrine, Fr Maxwell was accompanied by Deacons Dan D’Amelio and Douglas Hoffman also of the Norwich Diocese, who served Mass.

“Kids Choir” provided music at a special 5pm Mass. The day concluded with a pizza party in the Visitor Center sponsored by the Auriesville Council of the Knights of Columbus.

As Father Giorgio spent most of his priesthood in Italy, he was pleased to celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel in Italian. Eric Mazzone and Liz Massarone provided music. Angelo Gaetani-Liseo of Our Lady Queen of Apostles Parish, Frankfort, did the readings in Italian.

In The Museum

Descendants of the ‘almost martyr’ Guillaume Coûtore found valuable information in exhibits. Couture was a layman captured and tortured with St Isaac Jogues. He became an honorary member of the Mohawk tribe. He went on to raise a French-Canadian family of ten children.

The home parish of a family from India is named for St. René Goupil, Now living in NJ, the family took photos of the many images of the martyr to send to the parish. They were moved by their walk into the Ravine where the saint is buried.

Funeral director transporting a body for burial in Jesuit cemetery at Auriesville stopped at the museum. His hand was severely wrapped since severing tendons in a carpentry accident; He was awaiting surgery. He was not knowledgeable about the Martyrs or of the hand mutilations suffered by St. Isaac Jogues. Grateful that God had brought him here, he asked for prayers through the saint’s intercession.
