The Rocks of Auriesville's Ages

The prominent "Auriesville Shrine" sign of white rocks (R) is a distant memory to pilgrims on the grounds and to travelers on the Thruway. The white paint faded and rocks all but disappeared into the ground. Local councils of the Knights of Columbus have initiated the effort to unearth, power-wash, paint, and reset each rock. As each letter is comprised of a large pile of rocks, this is a back breaking job. As one of the Knights commented: "I watched it disappear now I want to help bring it back."

Our Lady of Martyrs Council of the Knights of Columbus meet at the Shrine on second Saturdays. Contact Eric Mazzone, Grand Knight, at 518.487.9307.

Regional Chapter of Cursillo, the Catholic evangelization movement, held their annual retreat at the Shrine.

Deacon Joe Cechnicki of Our Lady of Hope in Fort Plain assisted Bishop Edward Scharfenberger at the Mass of Confirmation for Fulton/Montgomery Counties. Knights of Columbus color corp was on hand wearing updated regalia. L to R: Mike McGovern, Walter Ulrich, Eric Mazzone, Owen Cole.

Missionaries of Charity from CT made a pilgrimage for Mass and Adoration with missionary priest Father Bellazario officiating.
