and Birthplace of St. Kateri Tekakwitha

Liturgies of September

(see sidebar for times and details)

The Latin Masses that were included in our Novena of Masses for the Assumption were well received with reverence and interest. Continuing that tradition, Father Roger Landry will have a Latin Mass on Sunday Sept 12 in addition to the 3pm Novus Ordo Mass

Sept 14&15 honor Our Lord and Our Lady in their suffering and the abundant fruit it produces. The Exultation of the Cross is a Feast Day to remind us that Jesus brought redemption and life through his suffering and death. The former Mohawk village of Ossernenon, located here at the Shrine, has been called the "Land of Crosses." Reflections will be offered on the constant presence of the cross and its life-giving message through the sufferings and deaths of the Martyrs, followed by Holy Hour and Mass.

With the Blessed Mother always close by, the Memorial Mass for Our Lady of Sorrows is celebrated the following day. The Shrine now has an original trifold of The Seven Sorrows of Mary with St Isaac Jogues. Parallels in their ordeals of violence and grief is highlighted. After Mass, this will be prayed at the Seven Sorrows monuments ( L ) on the holy ground.

The National Day of Remembrance for the Unborn is observed at burial sites and memorials for the millions of babies lost to abortion. Thanks to the Knights of Columbus, there is such a monument here at the Shrine on the hilltop behind the Coliseum ( R ). "By participating, you are helping to humanize our aborted brothers and sisters and deepening your own commitment to ending the injustice of abortion." (nationaldayofremembrance.org). Rosary begins at 10am. Please stay to attend Mass at 11am with celebrant Father Pat Iannotti.

Also on Sept 18, the New York State Council of the Knights of Columbus makes its 63rd pilgrimage. After lunch at noon in pavilion (for tickets, call 518.883.5481 or 518.573.7339), the pilgrimage is steeped in prayer as winds its way through the Shrine: Benediction and Rosary in Martyrs Chapel; Stations of the Cross through the sanctified site of Ossernenon and onto the Hill of Prayer where the first rosary was recite in this part of the New World; Mass with Bishop Ed Scharfenberger in the Coliseum.

Pilgrimages and Masses

Latin Masses were celebrated in August by priests from dioceses of Albany, Syracuse, New York, and Lincoln, NE.

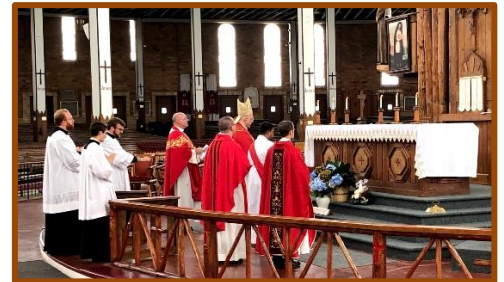

On the Feast of the Assumption, Solemn High Mass celebrated by Father Robert Ferguson, FSSP, (at far left and below) Vice Rector of Our Lady of Guadalupe Seminary in Denton, NE.

(L) Father Edmund Castronovo, pastor of Our Lady of Good Counsel in Verona NY, brought a pilgrimage to the Shrine and celebrated Latin Mass with his parish altar servers.

Archbishop Joseph Naumann of Kansas City, KS, brought seminarians on pilgrimage. They celebrated Mass and Holy Hour, visited the Ravine, spent prayerful time on the holy grounds, and met with Bishop Edward Scharfenberger (at podium far left).

Around the Grounds

(L) Slaves of Mary from MA enjoy a picnic; a pilgrim prays at the Crucifix; young pilgrims learn about Native Americans in museum.
