SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF MARTYRS

Auriesville, New York

The Holy Ground of the North American Martyrs and Birthplace of St. Kateri Tekakwitha

National Day of Remembrance for the Unborn

Sat Sept 10 at 10 am

With the U.S. Supreme Court decision to overturn Roe v Wade, abortion laws now revert to the states, and NY has doubled down on making it available here. Join us at the Monument to the Unborn on brow of the hill behind Coliseum as we participate in this national observance.

<https://nationaldayofremembrance.org/> Local contact is Chris Nunn nunn.christinem@gmail.com Rosary at 10am at the monument; 11am Mass in the Coliseum. Local councils of the K of C donated the monument in 1994. The project was initiated by Frank Attreed of Amsterdam, NY. It was completed with generous help from Cherry Valley Memorials that was in possession of this custom-made memorial that was never picked up. Several priests concelebrated the Mass in the Coliseum when the memorial was dedicated 18 years ago, including Father Frank Pavone of Priests for Life.

Media

On St. Kateri's Feast Day, Shrine Museum Manager Beth Lynch and Algonquin poet Jennifer Reesers appeared on a zoom conference with Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone and Maggie Gallagher of the Benedict Institute.

The Shrine will soon launch a Youtube channel where more videos with Beth, shrine board member Fr Roger Landry, and others will share the many aspects of the saints and the Shrine!

STEP UP!

Men's Conference attracted 300 men from around the diocese thanks to organizers Fr Brian Lehnert, Tom Labruzzo and Tom Cronin. Faith was ignited by bold proclamations of the gospel and the courage of the North American Martyrs by Fr Roger Landry and Fr Donald Calloway, MIC (R). Mass with Bishop Scharfenberger, prayer, and fellowship established contacts for many. Lines for confession were 20-30 men deep even with a half dozen priests available. Pray the Holy Spirit will anoint this as an annual event.

Pilgrims

Intent on retrieving a piece of the holy ground of Auriesville, an IVE sister (L) from the Catskills collected seeds from a flower bed outside the museum: seeds of red flowers for the blood of the martyrs and seed of white for the purity of St Kateri.

A young boy (R) on pilgrimage with his parish contemplates the relics of the North American Martyrs in the Coliseum.

Thanks to an anonymous and generous donation from a couple devoted to the Shrine, the second Station of the Cross, badly damaged in a late snow storm this year, has been repaired!

Priests find respite and rejuvenation for their busy ministries

Fr Jason Hage (L) led 70 pilgrims in the rosary from the ancient altar in the Ravine. From the Syracuse Diocese, Father is a pastor, Colgate University Newman Center minister, and Director of Office of Vocation Promotion for that diocese.

Fr Michael Zimmerman, Assistant Vocation Director for the Archdiocese of Boston and adjunct Scripture

Professor at St. John's Seminary, led young adults on a 200-mile pilgrimage of mercy from Boston to Divine Mercy Shrine, and on to Auriesville.

Rev David Wilton, CPM, Superior General of the Congregation of the Fathers of Mercy, stops on brief summer sojourns. Fr Paul Taylor, OSB, President of St Vincent College in PA, stayed at Lodges Lodge.

Healing

A man shared the story of his mother's healing of sepsis through the intercession of St Kateri after his family prayed to her in the Coliseum.

A young woman experienced depth of healing from the post traumatic stress of abuse when she learned of St Isaac Jogues' initial trepidation in returning here as a peace ambassador to those who had abused him.
